A Reflection from Bringing Home the Word...

God Simply Loves

By Mary Katharine Deeley

We nod our heads when asked whether God loves us, but what would you say if you were asked, "Does God like you?"

God's love is often difficult to fathom. Some of us are rational: "God loves everyone"—the unspoken thought being, "It's his job to love me." We say this about parents as well: "She's my mom, she has to say that." This idea of God's love never moves further than the head. Other people compartmentalize the love: "God loves me, but only when I'm good," or "God loves only the good parts of me." Still others use God's love as a shield against responsibility: "God forgives me no matter what I do and would never judge me harshly." God becomes a marshmallow—all sugar, no nutrition.

In reality, God's love holds us in delight as parents delight in their children. God's love rejoices in us as the Creator rejoices in endless variety and hidden mystery. God's love doesn't come out of necessity. Rather, it springs out of the nature of God. Out of love, God holds us accountable for our actions, forgives us when we ask, and is an abiding presence, whether we recognize it or not. When we turn away, God is there. When we suffer, God walks with us. When we sin, God is the source of our conversion.

God grounds us in peace and joy. God doesn't love us because we're the greatest and best. If that were the case, none of us would be worthy. God simply loves. We have only to seek his righteousness to know that and believe it.

UPDATE AND REVISIONS TO YOUTH MINISTRY

In the month of January, Amanda and the Youth Ministry team attempted to recruit more student, parent, adult, and young adult volunteers to assist with the Tuesday night Youth Group programs. In order to run our programming, we need one legal adult for every eight underage youth. Unfortunately, we have not reached this goal.

Due to a lack of parent and adult volunteers, we have had to make revisions to our Tuesday night Youth Group Schedules. We will now be starting both the Junior and Intermediate Youth Group programs in March, in hopes of gaining more parent involvement and/or adult volunteers. For a full, revised youth ministry schedule, please visit the parish website and download: YG Calendar Winter/Spring 2017 (under parish forms).

High School Leadership Training Opportunity:

Tuesday, February 28th from 3:30 - 4:30pm

Any high school aged youth that are interested in assisting with Tuesday night youth groups are welcome to attend! Please RSVP with Amanda

Stewardship Corner

Stewards of the mysteries of God — that's what St. Paul says we are in today's second reading. And the first requirement, he says, is that we be trustworthy. Entrusted with the gift of faith, do I share it as gratefully and as generously as I do my time, my talent, and my treasure?
