CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY FAMILY

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

ONE FLOCK, ONE SHEPHERD

I want to tell you about still another discovery which we made when we had already become quite familiar with our Lord. This happened when one blessed day we seemed to understand what Paul meant when he exclaimed, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever; and in another place: It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. These two statements were linked with the tremendous statement the mysterious voice had made to Paul when he was still Saul, I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting (Acts 9:5).

From that day on these words became the whole pattern for our life. If he can be identified with each one of us and if he is the same yesterday as today - then he just continues his very life in every one of us until the end of time. It is a big moment when one realizes that. One feels like saying, "All right, dear Lord, here are my hands and feet, eyes and ears, my lips and my heart - they are yours." I suppose this is the first step towards the final goal: It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.

As soon as one becomes familiar with the fact that he is the same today as yesterday, one will meet him constantly.... He really is the same. Nothing has changed. The Good Shepherd is still going after lost sheep; the Father is still waiting for the Prodigal Son; Mary Magdalen is still sitting at his feet after he has freed her from seven devils. It may be that not everybody will come across Mary Magdalen or the Good Shepherd in a drastic way. But as soon as we have awakened to what the words mean: Jesus Christ... yesterday and today, and as soon as we want to meet him today, we can always find him unerringly as Jesus Christ, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief (Is 53:3).

Once he would talk about the persecuted Christians of the first decade: I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. This is true throughout the centuries. All we have to do is to learn to think about our fellow men in that term: "I am Jesus."

SUNDAY READINGS

COLLECT:

O God, who raised up Saint Mark, your Evangelist, and endowed him with the grace to preach the Gospel, grant, we pray, that we may so profit from his teaching as to follow faithfully in the footsteps of Christ. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

1ST READING - ACTS 4.8-12

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders,<sup>9</sup> if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed,<sup>10</sup> let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.<sup>11</sup> This Jesus is "the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.<sup>12</sup> There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.'

2ND READING - 1 JOHN 3.1-2

<sup>1</sup>See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he<sup>[c]</sup> is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

GOSPEL - JOHN 10.11-18

<sup>11</sup> 'I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup> The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. <sup>13</sup> The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, <sup>15</sup> just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. <sup>17</sup> For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.'

QUEEN OF HEAVEN

*V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia!
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia!
V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia!
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia!
V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia!
R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia!*

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
