CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY FAMILY

EASTER SUNDAY

Christians, praise the paschal victim!
Offer thankful sacrifice!

Christ the Lamb has saved the sheep,
Christ the just one paid the price,
Reconciling sinners to the Father.

Death and life fought bitterly
For this wondrous victory;
The Lord of life who died reigns glorified!

"O Mary, come and say what you saw at break of day."

"The empty tomb of my living Lord!
I saw Christ Jesus risen and adored!

"Bright Angels testified,
Shroud and grave clothes side by side!

"Yes, Christ my hope rose gloriously.
He goes before you into Galilee."

Share the Good News, sing joyfully:
His death is victory!
Lord Jesus, Victor King, show us mercy.

Victimae Paschali Laudes

In the days leading up to the Solemnity of the Resurrection of Our Lord the liturgy has given us many hymns to sing the praises of our God. For me there are none quite as glorious as this Easter Sequence which is sung out during the Octave of Easter. "Death and life fought bitterly for this wondrous victory; The Lord of life who died reigns glorified." What an amazing image! In the words of one of the great evangelists of our times, Bishop Robert Barron, Jesus is not just some nice guy with inspiring words, for him Jesus is that cosmic warrior who comes to do destruction to everything that keeps us from being fully alive. As we approach the empty tomb let us sit with Mary and ask what she saw at break of day that made her run to share the Good News, singing joyfully of him who rose from the dead.

My dear friends in Christ, may you hear and see the joy of the Risen Christ!

Fr. Gerard Cooper

group discussions,
we'll learn how to be
stronger fathers, better
husbands and men fit for the breach.

The third Wednesday
of the month, we will gather at The Cathedral of the Holy Family in one of the meeting rooms to watch the videos and have a discussion and enjoy some fellowship.

Dear Clergy, Religious, and People of God of the Diocese of Saskatoon:
Greetings to you all as we approach another Holy Week and Easter Season!

The effects of the COVID pandemic have brought a whole new reality and set of circumstances for us all. However, the war in Ukraine and the prayer of consecration of all humanity, including Ukraine and Russia – have brought to our minds and hearts the awareness of the urgent need for a peace – a right restoration of relationship – with God, with one another, with all creation, and within ourselves - that only God can give us. In the words of our Saviour: “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled.” John 14:27

Our Lenten journey in the wilderness with Jesus has featured a renewed sense of vulnerability and brokenness in our world. However, it has also been a time of tremendous blessing and kindness. We have all recently heard about the meeting of the Indigenous delegation to Pope Francis in Rome. At the end of the meeting the Holy Father gave an apology. While many of us continue to ponder our thoughts and reactions to his words, I am also hearing from many people – Indigenous and non-Indigenous – that the Holy Father’s message was heartfelt and has provided much food for thought and reflection. It is another important step as we continue the long journey of careful and respectful listening to Indigenous peoples that marks the path towards healing and relationship-building.

At the end of his apology address to the delegation, Pope Francis stated: “The Spirit of the Lord is revealed in humility ...the humiliation of the Church is fruitfulness.” These words have a significant meaning as we remember the passion and crucifixion of our Lord Jesus Christ and the pathway forward for healing and right relationship. The peace that Christ gave His life for requires prayer and ongoing work on our part. In the words we have prayed during the week of the delegation, inspired by the Our Lady of Guadalupe Circle, we continue to pray: “That we who live in this land, Indigenous and non-Indigenous together may experience healing and reconciliation, on a renewed journey for justice and peace for our children.

Thank you all so very much for showing what it means to strive to have the same mind and heart as that of Christ Jesus during difficult and extraordinary times. In this upcoming season, I encourage us all to continue to care and pray for each other during these challenging times which also can lead us – with God’s help – to a new right relationship. As Pope Francis recently prayed with all bishops and dioceses throughout the world during the Act of Consecration of all humanity, including Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, may our Blessed Mother Mary show us the way through sorrow and pain to a renewed hope and right relationship. Let us pray again together:

O Mother - may your sorrowful plea stir our hardened hearts. May the tears you shed for us make this valley parched by our hatred blossom anew... May you, our “living fountain of hope”, water the dryness of our hearts. In your womb Jesus took flesh; help us to foster the growth of communion. You once trod the streets of our world; lead us now on the paths of peace. Amen Holy Week and the Easter season renew our awareness that nothing can come between us and the great love of God in Jesus Christ. May these extraordinary times, which call from us great faith, hope and love, continue to be a time of strengthening, healing and renewal for us all.

We adore you O Christ and we praise You, for by Your Holy Cross you redeemed and saved the world! In the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Sincerely in Christ, Bishop Mark Hagemoen

Adsumus

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
