CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY FAMILY

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

It should be known that the Word, the Son of God, together with the Father and the Holy Ghost, is hidden by His essence and His presence in the innermost being of the soul. A person who wants to find Him should leave all things through affection and will, enter within himself in deepest recollection, and regard things as though they were nonexistent. St. Augustine, addressing God in the Soliloquies, said: I did not find You without, Lord, because I wrongly sought You without, Who were within.

God then, is hidden in the soul, and there the good contemplative must seek Him with love, exclaiming: "Where have You hidden...?" Oh, then, soul, most beautiful among all the creatures, so anxious to know the dwelling place of your Beloved that you may go in quest of Him and be united with Him, now we are telling you that you yourself are His dwelling and His secret chamber and hiding place. This is something of immense gladness for you, to see that all you good and hope is so close to you as to be within you, or better, that you cannot be without Him. Behold, exclaims the Bridegroom, the kingdom of God is within you. And His servant, the apostle St. Paul, declares: You are the temple of God.

It brings special happiness to a person to understand that God is never absent. What more do you want, O soul! And what else do you search for outside, when within yourself you possess your riches, delights, satisfactions, fullness, and kingdom-your Beloved whom you desire and seek? Be joyful and gladdened in your interior recollection with Him, for you have Him so close to you. Desire Him there, adore Him there. Do not go in pursuit of Him outside yourself. You will only become distracted and wearied thereby, and you shall not find Him, or enjoy Him more securely, or sooner, or more intimately than by seeking Him within you. There is but one difficulty: Even though He does abide within you. He is hidden. Nevertheless, it is vital for you to know the place of His hiding that you may search for Him there with assuredness. And this, soul, is also what you ask, when with the affection of love you question: "Where have You hidden...?"

Come, then, O beautiful soul! Since you know now that your desired Beloved lives hidden within your heart, strive to be really hidden with Him, and you will embrace Him within you and experience Him with loving affection. Note that through Isaiah: I shall give you hidden treasures and reveal to you the substance and mysteries of secrets. [Is.45:3] The substance of the secrets is God Himself, for God is the substance and concept of faith, and faith is the secret and the mystery. And when that which faith covers and hides from us is revealed-that perfect vision of God spoken of by St. Paul [1 Cor. 13:10]-then the substance and mysteries of the secrets will be uncovered to the soul.

Adsumus

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for the 2021- 2023 Synod
