From the Deacon's Desk: (my own "farewell discourse"!)

I want to begin with a quote from Fr. Richard Rohr: "The Ascension is about the final reunion of what appeared to be separated for a while: Earth and Heaven, human and divine, matter and Spirit, feet and freedom. They are again one in the end, and it is important that we see ordinary human feet going into heaven! If the Christ is the archetype of the full human journey, now we know how it all resolves in the end. 'So that where I am, you also will be' (John 14:3).

What an appropriate reflection for my last time to share some thoughts with you! The goodbyes are both bitter and sweet! Joan and I are off to a new community in the Sandhills Region. They don't know us yet, and some are a bit anxious about this "deacon" and what he will be able to give them! So I ask for your prayers...pray for us and pray for them!

As I reflect on the past three years, my heart is filled with such a warm feeling of gratitude! I thank God for all of you. You have been so accepting and open to receive Joan and I into your faith community. It feels like we've always been a part of this Holy Family! I especially am grateful for the staff here in our parish. They have been wonderful to work with and the level of cooperation and collaboration was extremely high! What a team!

I am also grateful to Fr. David and his opening of his home to us. We will always have memories of great times sharing ministry and life together. I began with a quote, so I'll end by quoting a song that I wrote:

"Its hard to say goodbye to friends such as you. Its good to know we've shared a part of your days. The times we'll remember, golden moments spent with you. But now that our Lord has called us away, we want to say that we love you, and we'll be with you always, may God give you peace and joy in each others' hands."

In loving gratitude,

Deacon Bob & Joan

The second reading today contains the promise that Jesus is coming soon and will bring to each person the reward that his or her conduct deserves. Does my stewardship of the blessings entrusted to me mean that I could respond joyfully? "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!"

Diocesan Prayer intention - Beloved Lord, we pray as a diocesan family for all mothers, for expectant mothers and for those who long to be mothers. We pray for all those who have borne the pain of losing a child; for those who live in fear or worry, and for those mothers who are separated from their children. May all mothers and their children come to know your loving and gentle presence, and turn toward you in times of joy and of sorrow.
