CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY FAMILY

We are Holy Family

3rd Sunday of Advent — December 15th, 2013

Waiting can be a time of soul-searching. Today's liturgy invites us to ask ourselves whether we are ready to hear the call of the Saviour, whose birth we are preparing to celebrate. Helpless in Herod's prison cell, John the Baptist is puzzled and discouraged, as he faced a similar question. He has generously pointed Jesus out - as the one who was to bring the realisation of Israel's hopes; why, he asks through his messengers, is God's prophet now suffering in prison at the hands of an unprincipled tyrant; why has the mission of Jesus not brought the time of justice God's people long for?

The reading from Isaiah - a typical example of the message of hope announced by the prophets - helps us to understand why John is puzzled. This magnificent proclamation describes what can be looked forward to, as a New Exodus - a time of liberation, healing and boundless joy, as those who have been banished are brought back to Zion. But this triumph of God is also described as a time of 'vengeance' and 'retribution'. Having for centuries lived in bitterness under a series of occupying powers, the nation's expectations emphasised this latter part of the prophets' message. They looked forward to a vindictive triumph that would crush their hated enemies. This heavily politicised interpretation of Israel's messianic hopes constituted one of the main obstacles to be overcome by Jesus, if he was to bring the people to enter into the inauguration of the final reign of God - about to take place in his own person.

God's triumph was not to be the imposition of divine power. The coming of God's kingdom involves collaboration on the part of our human freedom - inspired and sustained by the example of Jesus, who gave the needy and the powerless a privileged place in all that he did in the name of his Father, and lived out the 'new commandment' of love he had proclaimed. Jesus replied to John's inquiry, therefore, by pointing to the 'messianic signs' foretold by the prophets. But to those included in today's reading from Isaiah he adds another from the later Isaian writings: 'the poor have the Good News preached to them'. In a sense, the divine authenticity of his mission is summed up fully in these words - words that have echoed down the centuries in the life of the Church. In the continuation of our gospel passage, Jesus points to the gospel values so heroically embraced by John - in his courageous witness and his detachment.

The message of Jesus to John is, 'Do not lose faith in me; open your generous heart to the ways of God that define Israel's faith, and you will recognise that I am truly the one who was to come'. Jesus taught, we know, that in the present era the 'coming of the kingdom' is hidden and mysterious, overturning our human expectations. Our reading from James echoes one of the parables of Jesus concerning the coming of the kingdom (Mk 4:26), as James encourages believers in his community to imitate the farmer's patience, as the hidden seed grows (Thornhill, 2013).

ADVENT RECONCILIATION TIMES

For most people Advent is one of the busiest times in the year. The pre-Christmas activities and expectations can often times overshadow the deep meaning of the Advent time of longing. This year, the Cathedral of the Holy Family will be offering numerous times in which the Church will be quiet for parishioners to come and reflect and pray. During these times of quiet the priests of the parish will be available to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. These Advent times of reflection, prayer and reconciliation will replace the usual Advent Penitential Service. The faithful are invited to come to the Church on any of the following days for quiet spiritual refreshment and the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Thursday, December 19th: 1 pm to 2:00 pm Saturday, December 21st: 10 am to Noon.

Diocesan Prayer Intention - During this season of concerts, pageants and celebrations, we pray as a diocesan family that every child will be blessed with a sense of inclusion, belonging and community, cared for and honoured as a precious gift of God.

Sunday Smile: A few seasonal puns:

- Why does Santa have three gardens? (So he can ho, ho, ho.)
- What did the Gingerbread Man put on his bed? (A cookie sheet.)
- How did Scrooge win the football game? (The ghost of Christmas passed.)
- What language does Santa Claus speak? (North Polish.)

Stewardship Corner: Your Faith in Action

Advent is a time to awaken, to be encouraged and not surrender to the despair that can be caused by hardship - Rejoice! If life feels dry, be nourished by the words and ever-faithfulness of Jesus. Even in the darkest and coldest winter, the seasoned farmer knows that spring will come. Be patient as sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Penitential celebrations in Saskatoon - Opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation in Advent are listed as part of a Christmas liturgy link at: www.saskatoonrcdiocese.com

Christmas donations - The diocesan Restorative Ministry Office is seeking cash donations to assist in purchasing small Christmas gifts for all the inmates at Saskatoon Correctional Centre, as a sign that they are not forgotten at this joyous time of year, when we celebrate how our Saviour has come into the world to bind up the broken-hearted, find the lost, and redeem us all. Place donations marked "Prison Ministry Christmas" in the parish collection or contact Dianne Anderson at the Catholic Pastoral Centre: (306) 659-5845.

Warm coats and parkas are needed for men being released from prison (especially large and extra-large sizes). Drop off donations at the Catholic Pastoral Centre or contact Dianne at (306) 659-5845.

Reclaimed soap, shampoo, and other items donated from local hotels, are collected for local shelters as well as overseas. If you have room for sorting, call Adrienne at (306) 244-5570 or: kinchen@sasktel.net Clean donated hotel linens are also made into bandages, slings, pillowcase-sun-dresses, smaller sheets, and so on, at Augustana Lutheran Church, 1201 Broadway Ave. South, Saskatoon (side door). All volunteers from any church are invited to help on Fridays, 1p.m. to 4 p.m., in this inter-church effort.

Brazil Mission Notes - Sr. Jeannine Rondot, SMS, writes from São José da Laje: "Our Advent Tuesday and Thursday Eucharistic celebrations are held outdoors in all the different areas of town, allowing for better participation by more people. May this Advent journey of faith open our hearts to the coming of Jesus anew, so that we may rejoice in His presence in our daily lives."
